

Service Agreement
Revised: 03/08/2024

This Service Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into by and between Payment Pro Logistics, LLC, a California limited liability company doing business as Payment Labs (“Payment Labs”) and the company identified in the Order Form (“Company”) as of the Effective Date indicated on the Order Form. Payment Labs and Company may each individually be referred to herein as a “Party”, and collectively referred to herein as the “Parties”.

WHEREAS, Payment Labs provides a technology solution to assist users (“Users”) through a web-based application to create, track, and manage the status of payments to Users (the “Services”).

WHEREAS, Company desires to engage with Payment Labs to provide the Services, and Payment Labs is willing to provide the Services, under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Payment Labs and Company agree as follows:

Company’s execution of one or more Order Forms that incorporate this Agreement by reference indicates Company’s acknowledgement and acceptance of the terms herein. As used herein, the term “Agreement” shall include all Order Forms, exhibits, policies, schedules, and documents incorporated herein by reference.

1. Services. Payment Labs shall provide to the Company the Services. The Services shall be provided subject to the Terms of Service, attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Terms of Service”), which Terms of Service are incorporated herein by reference. To the extent that any conflict arises between this Agreement and the Terms of Service, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

To the extent that Payment Labs provides or makes available Identity Verification Services (as defined in Exhibit D) to Company, said Identity Verification Services shall be provided in accordance with and shall be subject to the Identity Verification Services Terms attached hereto as Exhibit D.

For avoidance of doubt, the Services shall not include direct payments to Users. Payment Labs has engaged a reputable and properly licensed third-party payment service provider as an Accounts Payable Automation Platform to manage direct payments to Users (the “MT Services”).

2. Company Obligations. Company shall:

2.1 Respond promptly to any reasonable requests from Payment Labs for instructions, information, or approvals required by Payment Labs to provide the Services.

2.2 Provide Payment Labs the following information, to the extent needed by Payment Labs or Payment Labs’ service provider to verify Company’s identity and compliance with the USA

PATRIOT Act (the Bank Secrecy Act) (“PATRIOT Act”) and all rules and regulations promulgated under the PATRIOT Act or by any other regulatory (including self-regulatory) agency that purports to have jurisdiction over Company or any of Company’s affiliates: (i) proof of existence and address, (ii) taxpayer identification number, (iii) proof of ownership and control, (iv) nature of business and source of funds, (v) e-mail address, and (vi) any other information reasonably requested by Payment Labs or Payment Labs’ service provider.

2.3 Be prohibited from analyzing, modifying, adapting, disassembling, reverse engineering, or creating derivative works based on, the Services and any Deliverables (as defined below), or otherwise exploiting any Intellectual Property Rights (as defined below) therein.

3. Fees and Expenses.

3.1 In consideration of the provision of the Services by Payment Labs and the rights granted to Company under this Agreement, Company shall pay the fees set forth in the Order Form in accordance with the payment terms specified therein. Fees are non-refundable. Fees described in the Order Form may be increased upon each automatic renewal thereof in accordance with the terms therein.

Fees for different payment types shall be as set forth in the Order Form. In addition, Payment Labs may, at its sole discretion, add and set the fees for new payment types (the “New Payment Types”). Payment Labs will provide Company with notice of the addition of any New Payment Types (e-mail notice or conspicuous notice on the Payment Labs website or app being sufficient). Company understands and agrees that New Payment types will immediately become available for use by Company’s payees, and Company hereby agrees to pay all fees for New Payment Types or have them deducted from payee payments in accordance with the terms set forth in the Order Form. Company may opt out of allowing its payees to use New Payment Types by providing written notice to Payment Labs at customersuccess@paymentlabs.io

Company shall be responsible for all fees, including but not limited to fees that Company elects to have deducted from payee payments (if the fee is unable to be deducted), returned payment fees, cancellation fees, and others. Company’s election to pass fees along to its payees or have fees deducted from payee payments does not release Company from its obligation to pay all fees.

3.2 Except for invoiced payments that the Company has successfully disputed, all late payments shall bear interest at the highest rate permissible under California law, calculated daily and compounded monthly. In addition to all other remedies available under this Agreement or at law (which Payment Labs does not waive by the exercise of any rights hereunder), Payment Labs shall be entitled to suspend the provision of any Services if the Company fails to pay any undisputed amounts when due hereunder and such failure continues for thirty (30) days following written notice thereof.

4. Limited Warranty.

4.1 Subject to the warranties set out in Section 8.2, the Parties acknowledge and agree that the Services are provided “as is” without warranties of any kind, either expressed or implied, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, and warranties of non-infringement. Payment Labs does not represent or warrant that content or information provided through the Services are accurate, complete, reliable, current, or error-free. Payment Labs does not represent or warrant that the Services are free of viruses or other harmful components and, therefore, Company should use industry recognized software to detect and remove viruses from any download. No advice or information, whether oral or written, obtained by Company from Payment Labs or through the Services shall create any warranty not expressly stated herein.

5. Intellectual Property; Content.

5.1 All intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, patent disclosures, and inventions (whether patentable or not), trademarks, service marks, trade secrets, know-how, methods, processes and other confidential information, trade dress, trade names, logos, corporate names, and domain names, together with all of the goodwill associated therewith, derivative works, and all other rights (collectively, “Intellectual Property Rights”) in and to all documents, work product, and other materials that are delivered to or accessible by Company under this Agreement or prepared by or on behalf of Payment Labs in the course of performing the Services (collectively, the “Deliverables”) shall be owned by Payment Labs.

If applicable, Payment Labs hereby grants Company a license for the term of this Agreement to use the Deliverables free of additional charge and on a non-exclusive, worldwide, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, basis, solely to the extent necessary to enable Company to make reasonable use of the Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by Payment Labs.

6. Confidentiality. From time to time during the Term of this Agreement, either Party (as the “Disclosing Party”) may disclose or make available to the other Party (as the “Receiving Party”), non-public, proprietary, and confidential information of Disclosing Party, whether or not labeled as “confidential” (“Confidential Information”); provided, however, that Confidential Information does not include any information that: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of Receiving Party’s breach of this Section 6; (b) is or becomes available to the Receiving Party on a non-confidential basis from a third-party source, provided that such third party is not and was not prohibited from disclosing such Confidential Information; (c) was in Receiving Party’s possession prior to Disclosing Party’s disclosure hereunder; or (d) was or is independently developed by Receiving Party without using any Confidential Information. The Receiving Party shall: (x) protect and safeguard the confidentiality of the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information with at least the same degree of care as the Receiving Party would use to protect its own Confidential Information, but in no event with less than a commercially reasonable degree of care; (y) not use the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information, or permit it to be accessed or used, for any purpose other than to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement; and (z) not disclose any such Confidential Information to any person or entity, except to the Receiving Party’s Group (as defined below) who need to know the Confidential Information to assist the Receiving Party, or act on its behalf, to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement.

If the Receiving Party is required by applicable law or legal process to disclose any Confidential Information, it shall, prior to making such disclosure, use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Disclosing Party of such requirements to afford Disclosing Party the opportunity to seek, at Disclosing Party's sole cost and expense, a protective order or other remedy. "Receiving Party's Group" shall mean the Receiving Party's affiliates and its or their employees, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, members, managers, agents, independent contractors, subcontractors, attorneys, accountants, and financial advisors.

7. Term, Termination.

7.1 This Agreement shall commence as of the Effective Date and shall continue until the earlier of: a.) the date all Order Forms have expired or been terminated; and b.) the date this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Section 7.2 or Section 7.3. Termination of this Agreement shall cause all Order Forms to be terminated.

7.2 Either Party may terminate this Agreement, effective upon written notice to the other Party (the "Defaulting Party"), if the Defaulting Party:

- (a) Materially breaches this Agreement, and such breach is incapable of cure, or with respect to a material breach capable of cure, the Defaulting Party does not cure such breach within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of such breach.
- (b) Becomes insolvent or admits its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due.
- (c) Becomes subject, voluntarily or involuntarily, to any proceeding under any domestic or foreign bankruptcy or insolvency law, which is not fully stayed within seven (7) days or is not dismissed or vacated within forty-five (45) days after filing.
- (d) Is dissolved or liquidated or takes any corporate action for such purpose.
- (e) Makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.
- (f) Has a receiver, trustee, custodian, or similar agent appointed by order of any court of competent jurisdiction to take charge of or sell any material portion of its property or business.

7.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.2(a):

- (a) Payment Labs may terminate this Agreement at any time for convenience upon thirty (30) day written notice.
- (b) Company may terminate this Agreement at any time for convenience upon thirty (30) day written notice provided there are no outstanding payments to be made to Users. Termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.3 shall not relieve Company of its obligation to pay agreed upon fees, and all such fees shall continue to accrue and be due and payable.

7.4 Waiver of Claims Related to Termination. To the fullest extent allowed by law, Company waives all rights or protection under any statute, rule or law for compensation or damages from termination of this Agreement. The manner and notice of expiration, nonrenewal or other form of termination of this Agreement are reasonable and, upon such termination, whether with or without cause, no payment, compensation or indemnity for loss of goodwill or accounts, or prospective profits, or any other damages, indemnity or loss shall be due of Payment Labs.

7.5 Effect of Termination. Termination of this Agreement shall not relieve either Party of any obligations to the other incurred prior to termination. Any termination shall result in the immediate cancellation of Company's use of the Services and all amounts owed by Company to Payment Labs shall become immediately due and payable without set off. All license grants are for the Agreement term only and shall automatically expire upon termination of this Agreement.

8. Representations and Warranties. Each Party represents and warrants that: (i) it has the full corporate right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform the acts required of it under this Agreement; (ii) the execution of this Agreement and performance of its obligations under this Agreement do not and shall not violate any other agreement to which it is a party; and (iii) the individual executing this Agreement on behalf of a Party has authority to bind such Party to this Agreement and the performance hereof.

8.1 Company represents and warrants to Payment Labs that: (i) it is performing under this Agreement as a business and not as an individual consumer; (ii) all forms and due diligence questionnaires and correspondence provided by Company in association with this Agreement, including but not limited to the "Know Your Customer" (KYC) Data Gathering document(s), and Order form(s) (collectively referred to as "Account Set Up Documentation") on behalf of the Company and/or Users shall be deemed to constitute representations by Company herein of the veracity of the information contained therein; (iii) that any and all information provided to Payment Labs or its third-party service provider(s) in the course of applying for, setting up and using the Services shall be true and accurate; (iv) Company is not using the Services on behalf of a third party; (v) Company has full and exclusive right, title and interest in the money used in connection with the Services ("Funds"); (vi) Company has full authority to pay Users, whether to individuals or companies on behalf of individual users; (vii) Company will resolve any dispute or complaint directly with each User that may arise, except where the User's complaint is solely due to the fault of Payment Labs; (viii) Company will not use the Services, directly or indirectly, for any fraudulent undertaking or in any manner so as to interfere with the operation of the Services; (ix) Company is not in breach of agreements with any financial institution where Company demand deposit account(s) are maintained; (x) other than as required by law, Company shall not at any time divulge, directly or indirectly, any of the terms of this Agreement to any natural person, corporation, firm, joint venture, partnership, limited liability company, trust, unincorporated organization, government or any department, political subdivision or agency of a government ("Person") other than Company's legal counsel or other professional service providers; (xi) no statement, representation, promise, or inducement has been made to Company in connection with the terms of this Agreement, the execution hereof or otherwise, except as is expressly set forth in this Agreement; (xii) Company's use of the Services shall, and will continue at all times to, comply with all laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, licenses, permits, judgments, decisions or other requirements of any governmental authority, governing body or jurisdiction applicable to Company or the Services (collectively, all "Applicable Laws"), whether those Applicable Laws are now in effect or later come into effect.

8.2 Payment Labs represents and warrants to Company that during the term of this Agreement to the extent possible: (i) it shall comply with all material laws, rules and regulations (including without limitation export control laws) applicable to its activities in connection with this Agreement; (ii) the services provided herein shall be provided with reasonable care and skill; (iii) it shall comply with the data privacy provisions set out in Exhibit B; (iv) the Services shall comply with the Applicable Laws; (v) it is capable of performing its obligations under this Agreement; (vi) it shall use industry standard firewalls and encryption technologies which are up to date; (vii) it shall not hold itself out as an agent of Company; (viii) it is the owner of all Intellectual Property Rights in relation to the Services; and (ix) the Services do not infringe third party intellectual property rights in any way. Without limitation, Payment Labs makes no representation that use of the Services will result in any improvement in the business of Company or its relationships with Users.

9. Limitation of Liability; Release of Liability; Indemnity.

9.1 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR TO ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY LOSS OF USE, REVENUE, OR PROFIT OR LOSS OF DATA OR DIMINUTION IN VALUE, OR FOR ANY CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES WHETHER ARISING OUT OF BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH DAMAGE WAS FORESEEABLE AND WHETHER OR NOT EITHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, AND NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ANY AGREED OR OTHER REMEDY OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.

9.2 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), OR OTHERWISE, EXCEED ONE (1) TIMES THE AGGREGATE AMOUNTS PAID OR PAYABLE TO PAYMENT LABS AS MANAGED SERVICE FEES PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT IN THE SIX (6) MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM.

9.3 In consideration of being permitted to access and use the Services, Company hereby agrees to release Payment Labs and its affiliates and subsidiaries, and their officers, directors, employees and agents from all damages (whether direct, indirect, incidental, consequential or otherwise), losses, liabilities, costs and expenses of every kind and nature, known and unknown, arising out of or in any way connected with disputes between Company and third parties (including Users) in connection with the Services or Company's access and use of the Services. In connection with the foregoing release, Company hereby waives California Civil Code 1542 and any other applicable law or statute, which says, in substance: "A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party."

9.4 Company agrees and shall indemnify and hold harmless Payment Labs, its affiliates, subsidiaries, and their officers, directors, employees and agents from and against any and all liability, losses, claims, damages, causes of action, costs or other expense (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of defense) arising from or relating to: (i) any action or inaction of Company; (ii) Company's breach of this Agreement; (iii) any Company and User dispute of any kind; (iv) use of the Services; (v) any incorrect or incomplete payment instructions or User information; (vi) any action or inaction of Company that prohibits or otherwise affects Payment Labs' ability to provide the Services; and (v) any gross negligence or willful misconduct by Company.

9.5 Payment Labs agrees and shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Company, its affiliates, subsidiaries, and their officers, directors, employees and agents from and against any and all liability, losses, claims, damages, causes of action, costs or other expense (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of defense) arising from or relating to: (i) any breach by Payment Labs of its representations and warranties herein; (ii) Payment Labs's breach of this Agreement; (iii) any Payment Labs and User dispute of any kind; and (iv) provision of the Services. or (v) any gross negligence or willful misconduct by Payment Labs. With respect to such indemnity, Payment Labs shall control the defense and settlement of any claim, action, suit or controversy with counsel selected by Payment Labs. This indemnification obligation shall survive the expiration of the Term or the termination of this Agreement. Payment Labs shall have no indemnification obligation pursuant to this Section 9.5 to the extent that such obligation would not have arisen but for: a.) any act or omission of Company; b.) Company's breach of this Agreement, negligence, or willful misconduct; c.) Company's combination of the Services with any product or service not provided by Payment Labs; or d.) Payment Labs' following of the Company's express written direction.

9.6 Payment Labs shall maintain during the Term and for three (3) years thereafter insurance with liability limits that are reasonable and customary for companies operating in Payment Labs' industry.

10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including and together with any Order Forms, related statements of work, exhibits, schedules, attachments, and appendices, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, regarding such subject matter. Payment Labs' Privacy Policy is contained in Exhibit C and is incorporated by reference herein.

11. Notices. All notices, requests, consents, claims, demands, waivers, and other communications under this Agreement (each, a "Notice", and with the correlative meaning "Notify") must be in writing and addressed to Payment Labs at its address set forth below and to Company at its address set forth in the Order Form (or to such other address that the receiving Party may designate from time to time in accordance with this Section). 12. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

13. Amendments. Payment Labs reserves the right to amend, modify, add, or remove portions of this Agreement (excluding any Order Forms) at any time and at its sole discretion. Any changes will be effective immediately upon posting the revised version on <https://www.paymentlabs.io/service-agreement>. It is Company's responsibility to review this Agreement periodically for updates or changes. Company's continued use of the Services following the posting of any changes constitutes Company's acceptance of those changes. If Company does not agree to the amended Agreement, Company must stop using the Services immediately. Payment Labs will provide additional notice of any amendment, such as via email or through a notification on our website or service platform. The date of the last revision of this Agreement will be indicated at the top of this page.

14. Waiver. No waiver by any Party of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the Party so waiving. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, remedy, power, or privilege arising from this Agreement shall operate or be construed as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege.

15. Assignment. Company shall not assign, transfer, delegate, or subcontract any of its rights, licenses granted hereunder or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement, including by virtue of any merger or corporate reorganization which may be deemed an assignment, without the prior written consent of Payment Labs. Any purported assignment or delegation in violation of this Section 15 shall be null and void. No assignment or delegation shall relieve the Company of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Payment Labs may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations to any affiliate or to any person acquiring all or substantially all of Payment Labs' assets, without Company's consent.

16. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement is binding on and inures to the benefit of the Parties to this Agreement and their respective permitted successors and permitted assigns.

17. Relationship of the Parties. The relationship between the parties is that of independent contractors. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as creating any agency, partnership, joint venture, or other form of joint enterprise, employment, or fiduciary relationship between the parties, and neither Party shall have authority to contract for or bind the other party in any manner whatsoever.

18. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement benefits solely the Parties to this Agreement and their respective permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, confers on any other party any legal or equitable right, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

19. Choice of Law. This Agreement and all related documents including the Order Form, all exhibits attached hereto, and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, whether sounding in contract, tort, or statute are governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California, United States of America, without giving effect to the conflict of laws provisions thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of California. The Parties agree that the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act as enacted in any State of the United States shall not apply to this Agreement or any performance hereunder and the parties expressly opt-out of the applicability of UCITA to this Agreement.

20. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which is deemed an original, but all of which together are deemed to be one and the same agreement. A signed copy of this Agreement delivered by email or other means of electronic transmission is deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original signed copy of this Agreement.

21. English Language. Communications and documents from Payment Labs, on the Payment Labs' website (the "Site"), or through the Services may be in a language other than English. With respect to this Agreement, the Terms of Service (Exhibit A), Privacy Policy (Exhibit C), and any other agreement between you and Payment Labs, or other policy implemented by Payment Labs, the English language version of each of these documents is the version that governs your use of the Services and controls in the event of any conflict.

22. Force Majeure. Payment Labs shall not be liable or responsible to Company, nor be deemed to have defaulted or breached this Agreement, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any term of this Agreement when and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from acts or circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Payment Labs including, without limitation, acts of God, flood, fire, earthquake, explosion, governmental actions, war, invasion or hostilities (whether war is declared or not), terrorist threats or acts, riot, or other civil unrest, national emergency, revolution, insurrection, epidemic, lock-outs, strikes or other labor disputes (whether or not relating to either Party's workforce), or restraints or delays affecting carriers or inability or delay in obtaining supplies of adequate or suitable materials, or telecommunication, technology, system failures, breakdowns or power outages at third-party payment service provider(s) or other third-party service provider(s) that provide the MT Services or other services.

23. Arbitration.

23.1 Pre-Arbitration Dispute Resolution. Prior to initiating an arbitration, the Parties each agree to notify the other party of the dispute and attempt to negotiate an informal resolution to it first. If after a good faith effort to negotiate, either of the Parties feels the dispute has not and cannot be resolved informally, the Party intending to pursue arbitration agrees to notify the other party via email prior to initiating the arbitration.

23.2 Agreement to Arbitrate. The Parties agree that any dispute, claim, or controversy, whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation or any other legal theory, arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, or to the use of the Services (collectively, “Disputes”) will be settled through binding arbitration and not in a court of law. The Parties each hereby agree to resolve any and all Disputes through binding arbitration or in small claims court (to the extent the claim qualifies) instead of in courts of general jurisdiction and only on an individual basis and not as part of any purported class, consolidated or representative proceeding. Only the arbitrator appointed pursuant to this Section, and not any federal, state or local court or agency, shall have the authority to resolve any dispute or claim relating to this Section, including, without limitation, the scope, enforceability and arbitrability of this Agreement. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of this Agreement. This Agreement evidences a transaction in interstate commerce and the interpretation and enforcement of this Section is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, notwithstanding the choice of law set forth in this Agreement.

23.3 Scope of Arbitration. This agreement to arbitrate is intended to be broadly interpreted. It includes, but is not limited to: (i) all claims arising out of or relating to any aspect of the relationship between the Parties, whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation or any other legal theory; (ii) all claims that arose before this or any prior agreement (including, but not limited to, claims relating to advertising); and (iii) all claims that may arise after termination of this Agreement and/or Company’s use of the Services.

23.4 Exceptions. Notwithstanding this agreement to arbitrate, either Party may (i) bring an action on an individual basis in small claims court (to the extent the applicable claim qualifies), (ii) bring issues to the attention of federal, state or local agencies, including, for example, the Federal Trade Commission and the California Division of Consumer Services, which agencies may be able to seek relief on a Party’s behalf (the Complaint Assistance Unit of the Division of Consumer Services may be contacted in writing at 1625 North Market Blvd., Suite N 112, Sacramento, California 95834, or by telephone at (800) 952-5210), and (iii) bring suit in court to seek a preliminary injunction or other interim relief pending the outcome of arbitration.

23.5 No Class Actions. EACH PARTY HEREBY AGREES THAT EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN ITS INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY, AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS, CONSOLIDATED OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. THE ARBITRATOR MAY NOT CONSOLIDATE MORE THAN ONE PERSON’S CLAIMS, MAY NOT PRESIDE OVER ANY FORM OF CLASS, CONSOLIDATED OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING AND MAY ONLY PROVIDE RELIEF IN FAVOR OF THE INDIVIDUAL PARTY SEEKING RELIEF AND ONLY TO THE EXTENT NECESSARY TO PROVIDE RELIEF WARRANTED BY THAT PARTY’S INDIVIDUAL CLAIM.

23.6 Notice of Dispute. A Party who intends to seek arbitration must first send to the other a written Notice of Dispute (“Notice”). The Notice shall be addressed to the address set forth in Section 11, or as otherwise provided by the other Party and must be sent by certified mail. The Notice must (i) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute; and (ii) set forth the specific relief sought. If the Parties do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim within sixty (60) calendar days after the Notice is received, either Party may commence an arbitration proceeding.

23.7 Arbitration Proceedings. The arbitration will be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Rules, or, if the actions giving rise to the dispute or claim relate to Company's personal or household use of the Services (rather than business use), the Consumer Arbitration Rules (in each case, the "AAA Rules") of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), as modified by this Section, and will be administered by the AAA and settled by a single arbitrator. The AAA Rules are available online at adr.org or by calling the AAA at 1-800-778-7879. The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this Agreement. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, including, but not limited to, issues relating to the scope, enforceability, and arbitrability of this Section. Unless the Parties agree otherwise, any arbitration hearings will take place in a reasonably convenient location in the United States for both parties with due consideration of their ability to travel and other pertinent circumstances. If the parties are unable to agree on a location, AAA shall determine the location. If Company's claim is for ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less, Payment Labs agrees that Company may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents submitted to the arbitrator, through a telephonic hearing, or by an in-person hearing as established by the AAA Rules. If Company's claim exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), the right to a hearing will be determined by the AAA Rules. Regardless of the manner in which the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. All decisions by the arbitrator shall be final and binding and judgment on the award rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

23.8 Costs of Arbitration; Legal Fees.

(a) Payment of all filing, administration, and arbitrator costs and expenses imposed by AAA will be governed by the AAA rules, provided that if Company is initiating an arbitration against Payment Labs and the value of the relief sought is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less, then Payment Labs will advance all filing, administrative and arbitration costs and expenses imposed by AAA (subject to reimbursement as set forth below). If the circumstances in the preceding sentence apply, but the value of relief sought is more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and Company demonstrates to the arbitrator that such costs and expenses would be prohibitively more expensive than a court proceeding, then Payment Labs will pay the amount of any such costs and expenses that the arbitrator determines are necessary to prevent the arbitration from being prohibitively more expensive than a court proceeding (subject to reimbursement as set forth below). In the event that the arbitrator determines that all of the claims Company asserts in arbitration are frivolous according to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, Company agrees to reimburse Payment Labs for all such cost and expenses that Payment Labs paid and that Company would have been obligated to pay under the AAA rules.

(b) Just as in any court proceeding, each Party will initially bear its own attorneys' fees and expenses in connection with any arbitration. Should either Party be determined to have substantially prevailed in the arbitration, then upon such Party's request, the arbitrator shall award such prevailing Party the reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses that it incurred in connection with the arbitration, provided that to the extent that the dispute or claim relate to Company's personal or household use of the Services (rather than business use) Payment Labs will not seek to recover its attorneys' fees and expenses in an arbitration initiated by Company. The arbitrator may make rulings and resolve disputes as to the reimbursement of attorneys' fees and expenses upon request from either party made within fourteen (14) days of the arbitrator's ruling on the merits.

24. Choice of Forum. In the event that the Agreement to Arbitrate above is found not to apply to Company or to a particular claim or dispute, then any dispute or claim not subject to arbitration shall be resolved exclusively by a federal court located in Los Angeles County, California, and to the extent there is no subject matter jurisdiction in such federal court, then a state court in Los Angeles County, California. Both Parties agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction and venue of such courts and agree that such a forum is convenient.

25. Time to Bring Claims. Any cause of action arising out of or related to the Site or Services must commence within one year after the cause of action accrues. Otherwise, such cause of action is permanently barred.

26. Headings. The heading references herein are for convenience purposes only, do not constitute a part of this Agreement, and will not be deemed to limit or affect any of the provisions of it.

27. Survivability. 2.6 Additional Termination Provisions for the IDV. If Payment Labs determines that Company has failed to comply with any potentially applicable laws and regulations applicable to the IDV, Payment Labs may, in its sole discretion and upon notice to Company, immediately suspend or terminate provision of the IDV to Company. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY CONTAINED IN THESE IDV TERMS ARE IN ADDITION TO, AND NOT IN LIEU OF, ANY LIMITS OUTLINED IN THE SERVICE AGREEMENT.

6.2 Acknowledgment. The Parties acknowledge that the limitations and exclusions contained in this Section 6 and elsewhere in these IDV Terms have been the subject of negotiation between the Parties and represent the Parties' agreement based upon the perceived level of risk associated with their respective obligations under these IDV Terms, and the payments made hereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge and agree that a.) the provisions hereof that limit liability, disclaim warranties or exclude consequential damages or other damages or remedies shall be severable and independent of any other provisions and shall be enforced as such, regardless of any breach hereunder, and b.) all limitations of liability, disclaimers of warranties, and exclusions of consequential damages or other damages or remedies shall remain fully valid, effective and enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, even under circumstances that cause an exclusive remedy to fail of its essential purpose.

We can view a copy of the photographs of your ID and your face to help process your check-in and comply with our legal recordkeeping requirements. We may access and disclose a copy of your ID to third-parties as necessary to enforce any contractual terms, as may be required by and in order to enforce applicable laws and regulations, as requested by any judicial process or governmental agency, to protect the safety and lives of people, to protect our rights or property, to prevent fraud and upon its detection, to combat money laundering, and with your consent.
